ON THE STRUGGLE OF LIFE

We're readin' a great deal these days about people who climbed from nothin' t' greatness, mostly great writin' an' great money makin', people who had th' stuff in 'em t' forge ahead an' beat down all obstacles in their pathway t' boast o' two or more that can't nuthin'.

He devoted th' follo'rin' five years t' colorin' a meerschaum pipe. Then followed a correspondence course in vulcanizin', but he never practiced. His friends urged him t' take up th' saxophone, but he rebelled, feelin' that some-thin' higher an' better waited beyond. Hard as he struggled, he couldn't git no publicity, except when he was hit by a train, or held up vagrantly.

He started out t' look th' field o' opportunity over. In passin' a res-taurant card bearin' "Counter Man Wanted," caught his eye. He ap-plied for th' place an' got it. He had not held th' position long until he needed a pie compass dawning on him. He don't know whether or not any of our readers ever no-ticed th' name "Sap" on a pie compass or not, but it's there. To Faulkner Sap, now rich beyond his fondest dreams, belongs th' dis-tinction of inventin' th' first in-vented pie compass, a little instru-ment which makes it possible t' cut a standardized pie in six pieces, without any single piece varyin' from th' others one thousandth of an inch.

Daley Buys Out Big Wholesale Grocery House

United Company Taken Over by Southern California Corporation

A merger of great import in the wholesale food trade yesterday was the purchase of the stock of the United Wholesale Grocery Company by Daley's, Inc. The United Wholesale Grocery Company has been in business a number of years, hav-ing incorporated as the W. W. Stewart Company in 1899, and was acquired by W. F. Bosbyshell and associates in 1901. W. F. Bosby-shell was president of the corpora-tion up to the time of his death in 1914, when he was succeeded by his son, Richard C. Bosbyshell, who has continued in office since that time.

The United Wholesale Grocery Company operates ten cash and carry wholesale stations in the city and beach towns, and these will be continued. Daley's, Inc., expects to use their retail stores as an additional outlet to dispose of the merchandise acquired by this purchase. The business will be combined next Monday and operated from the Daley plant at 751 Terminal street. The building oc-cupied by the United Wholesale Grocery Company has been rented

LILTS O'LOVE AND LAUGHTER

By Judd Mortimer Lewis. NORDIC. Sometimes a word lies hid between The dictionary leaves for years; 'Tis never read from morn to e'en, It ne'er impinges on our ears. You will recall how all the brood Of men in days we know about Hopped blithely on "desuetude" And used it till they wore it out. You will recall, no doubt, the fuss They made in much the self-same way When some one found "innocuous"; Indeed that was a joyous day! There was no sentence ever framed But to it that fair word it hugged, No entertainment ever named But into it that word was lugged.

The newer word that gets them all Is "Nordic." Isn't that a wow! In street, in camp, in court, in hall, The word you hear is "Nordic" now. And when you wildly roll your eyes At hearing it, and feel a pain, And give out incoherent cries, That's what is called: "The Nordic strain." Harry Moulday of Los Angeles spent Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Alfred Rosenberg, of Walnut street.
